"This is one of our favorite trips!" • "We always enjoy this field trip. It's fun and interactive..."

Second Grade Teachers

Freedom 101 - Third Grade

Travel back in time to interview key historic figures who made strides in freedom - Paul Revere, Susan B. Anthony, Frederick Douglass, President Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt, Mary McLeod Bethune, President Lyndon Johnson, Thurgood Marshall and Cesar Chavez. Students will also get a deeper look at the issues of women's suffrage, educational freedom and worker's rights, learn about boycotts and stage a protest parade! GPS: SS3H2, SS3CG2, SS3G2

"This was one of the best field trips we have ever been on!" • "I truly thought that this was one of the best field trips. What a neat museum! Also, your instructors worked well with the kids and you could tell that they loved what they did. We enjoyed it so much!" Third Grade Teachers

Native American Cultures - Fourth Grade

Compare and contrast the myths, legends and cultures of the Inuit, Kwakiutl, Nez Perce, Pawnee, Hopi and Seminole tribes. Discover how the areas in which they lived and the animals they encountered affected the lives of those tribes. Learn a Hopi dance, handle artifacts and act out a legend. GPS: SS4H1

"This was an excellent program that kept students moving and engaged. Stops were interesting and relevant to students. Planning the trip was effortless and the day was very well organized. I would bring other classes back in the future." • "Great field trip!" Fourth Grade Teachers

Homefront, Battlefront - Fifth Grade

Explore the lives of the men, women and children who lived during World War II. Discover ration books, Victory Gardens, 1940's lingo and propaganda. Find out how entertainers and everyday citizens pulled together to support the war effort. GPS: SS5H4, SS5H5, SS5H6

"The program was very well done! Thank you! The design perfectly addressed our social studies standards." • "Loved it!" 5th Grade Teachers
